U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

IN THE MATTER OF:

Christopher Cottrell
Debtor

CASE NO. 16-21885

CHAPTER 13

AGREED IMMATERIAL MODIFICATION OF PLAN AND ORDER

Comes now, Springleaf Financial Services of Indiana, Inc., by counsel and debtor, by counsel and Chapter 13 Trustee Chael, and show the Court that the debtor filed a Chapter 13 plan.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED by and between the creditor and debtor that the plan should be modified as follows:

1. Debtor will surrender the 2013 Triumph Thunderbird Storm, SMTB03WF4DJ567092.
2. Springleaf financial Services of Indiana, Inc. will be granted lift of stay, and abandonment.

And the Court having examined said Stipulated Modification of the Plan, and being duly advised in the premises, finds that said proposed Modification does not materially change the treatment of creditors, reduce the dividend to unsecured creditors, extend the time for payment to unsecured creditors, or affect the feasibility of the Plan, and that said proposed Immaterial Modification should be, and is hereby approved without further notice or opportunity for hearing by any creditors, and that the holder of any claim or interest that has previously accepted or rejected the Plan, as the case may be, is deemed to have accepted the Plan as modified.

SO ORDERED.
